

Reprinted from the Christian Science Sentinel, December 1998
All rights reserved.

Letter to the Editor – Daily forgiveness
By Elise L. Moore

Like Elijah (I Kings, chap. 19), we can respond to God's call and come out of the cave to face and silence the turmoil of emotions that would break up our life. Feeling the strength and calm of the still, small voice of good, we will discover that a law of good is operating right now in our lives. Then, like Elijah, we can be freed from haunting images. God loves you too much to leave you sorrowing.

I love Mary Baker Eddy's prayerful response, "Each day I pray: 'God bless my enemies; make them Thy friends; give them to know the joy and the peace of love'" (The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany, p. 220).