

Reprinted from Daily Lift, October 25, 2012
Republished with permission of the Christian Science Publishing
Society. All rights reserved.

Call 91:1

By Elise L. Moore, C.S.B.

A religious article appeared in the Christian Science Monitor about calling 911. The title is “Emergency: Call Psalms 91:1.” It got me thinking about emergencies, when pain, accident or any problem threatens. Psalms 91:1 says “He that dwell[s] in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.” Almighty. I like the sound of that. The power of God is almighty, and that makes safety and health more powerful than fear or disease. The secret place is the Kingdom of God. It’s the kingdom of health and harmony come to Earth. This secret place is known to God and to all of God’s beloved creation, but unknown to the materially minded. We live in the kingdom of almighty health, almighty safety, almighty good.

We can call 911, Psalms 91:1, anytime we need to feel God’s safety, or health and protection. God always answers. Christ always protects and heals. You dwell in the secret place of health and harmony, wrapped in the arms of almighty divine Love.